Fire at Lebanon Causes a Loss of $10,000.

SOME IMPORTANT APPOINTMENTS MADE.

Frankfort, April 23 .- Friends of Walter Evans are bending every energy to the effort to farce him on the caucus as a compromise condidate tonight. Deboe and Holt still stand firm, however, and it is not believed the effort in Evans' favor will be successful at this stage of the game.

The Republicans this morning broke the quorum and there was no election.

Some of the people of Metropolis are very indignant at the report in a contemporary Wednesday about the election being attended by "fifteen or more figids." Neither were there any eighteen special pulicemen mus tered in for the occasion, as the same paper stated.

Some of the merchants are s angry that they have refused to purchase goods from Paduenb drnmmers, saying that they don't want goods from any city the newspaper of which sinnder them.

The election scenes in Metropolis could not have possibly been much worst than those that preceded the recent Democratic primary here.

COUNCIL COMMITTEES PROTEST

The Board and Committees Met and Talked It Over.

SCHOOL BOARD UNR LEVY NO

The board of education insists on a fifty-cent school levy.

The board held a called meeting last night to hear a protest from the finance and sewerage committees of the city conneil relative to theliftycent levy the board has demanded of the council for the ensuing year. Messrs. Lang, Brian, Smith,

Brooks, Byrd, Lawrence, Leake. Rose, Mattison, Terrell and Widson were present.

The conneit wes ably represented by Messrs, Livingston, Williamson,

Rinckleff, Farley and Starks. Mr. Rickleff, chairman of finance committee, addressed the board. He said that he was satisfied both boards had the interests of the city at heart, and desired to do what was best for her welfare. He said that at the beginning of the last liscai year about $1,000 was in the city treasury, but that there is now a delicit in the treasury of something near $1,000. This would require a somewhat larger levy than usual. He explained that he knew the board could compei the conneil to make any levy it asked, but he simply wanted to put the matter before was reached, and at that crucial mothem and let them settle it according ment, knowing that Mr. McBride's sex has not to the dictates of their own reason. Conneilman Livingston said that
